

tennessee retail
A S S O C I A T I O N

Roland H. Myers III

Roland Myers is the president & CEO of the Tennessee Retail Association. Myers is responsible for the association's management, operations, and the implementation of its legislative, regulatory and political agenda.

Before joining the Tennessee Retail Association in 2006, Myers served for five years as the director of government relations at the Tennessee Chamber of Commerce & Industry.

From 1995-2000, Myers was the director of legislative affairs for the National Association of Federal Credit Unions in Washington, DC. He was the legislative director for former U.S. Representative Tom Barlow (1993-1994) and a legislative assistant for the U.S. House of Representatives' Committee on Financial Services (1992).

Myers is a graduate of Indiana University in Bloomington, Indiana. A Memphis native, he and his wife, Margaret R. T. Myers, live in Nashville.